and administering the no-fault workplace insurance plan under the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act for employers and illnesses. We play a key role in the province's occupational health and safety system; promoting workplace safety Ontario's Workplace Safety and Insurance Board (WSIB) is committed to the prevention of workplace injuries and their workers. We provide insurance benefits, pay for and monitor the quality of health care, and assist in early and safe return to work and labour market re-entry for workers who are injured on the job or contract an occupational disease. We also provide benefits to survivors of workers who die due to workplace injuries or illnesses.

CLAIM VOLUMES Tables 1 to 4

These tables show the claims for benefits that result from workplace injuries and illnesses in Ontario.

Complex claims can take some time to report and process. Data about injuries and illnesses in a given year continue to "mature" after the year has ended as more injuries and illnesses are reported and more claims are processed.

Table 1 lists total numbers of claims by the year they are registered.

occurred. Table 2 provides a snapshot of the number of injuries and illnesses by industry sector and business size for Tables 2, 3, and 4 present total numbers of claims according to the year in which the injuries and illnesses each year as at March 31 of the following year.

presents injury and illness data for each year as at 15 months after the end of each year, when data is likely to be fully Table 3 provides a snapshot of claims by claim status for each year as at March 31 of the following year. Table 4 mature. 2001 numbers in Table 4 are estimates.

Employers covered by the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act are categorized as either Schedule 1 or Schedule 2 employers. Schedule 1 employers pay premiums into an insurance fund administered by the WSIB. Benefits for injured and ill workers under the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act are paid for by this fund, which is administered by the WSIB. The majority of Ontario's employers are Schedule 1 employers. Schedule 2 employers are directly liable for the cost of benefits for their injured and ill workers. Schedule 2 employers include municipal, provincial and federal governments, railways, airlines, and telephone companies.

TABLE 1: CLAIMS REGISTERED BY YEAR OF REGISTRATION (1992 TO 2001)

This table shows the total number of claims registered with the WSIB by year. Some claims are registered with the WSIB after the year in which the injury, illness or fatality occurred. This table shows prior-year and current-year injury or illness claim registrations, as well as total registrations for each year.

Numbers include all claims reported to the WSIB for each year: claims allowed, claims denied, claims abandoned and claims pending.

TABLE 2: CLAIMS REGISTERED BY YEAR OF INJURY OR ILLNESS, INDUSTRY SECTOR AND BUSINESS SIZE (1997 TO 2001)

In 1997, the WSIB organized its operations to serve 17 industry sectors (Schedule 2 is a separate industry sector). This table shows injury and illness numbers by industry sector and business size for each year as at March 31 of the following year. All Schedule 2 employers have been included under "large business" in this table (number-of-employees data is not available for Schedule 2 employers).

impairment. Denied claims are claims for injuries or illnesses that were not work related, and claims by workers who were not covered under the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act. Abandoned claims are claims that have been withdrawn by the worker and claims for which the WSIB could not gather sufficient information to make an entitlement decision. Lost time claims are claims by workers who have lost wages. No lost time claims are claims by workers who have not lost wages as a result of temporary or permanent claims can take some time to report and process. Data about injuries and illnesses in a given year continues to "mature" These tables include detailed analysis of allowed lost time injury and illness claims by year of injury or illness. Complex after the year has ended as more injuries and illnesses are reported and more claims are processed. The numbers presented for each year include all lost time claims allowed as at March 31 of the following year.

Since 1996, the WSIB has used the Z795 national coding standard to record injuries and diseases (that is, nature and post-1996 data cannot be compared with pre-1996 data. This is why Tables 8 to 13 show data for only six years. (NOC) is used to classify workers' occupations. Because coding and classification standards changed for 1996, 1996 of injury or disease, part of body, event, and source of injury or disease). The National Occupational Classification

OCCUPATIONAL FATALITY CLAIMS Tables 14 and 15

These tables show claims made in connection with occupational fatalities. They show numbers based on the year in which claims were registered and the year in which claims were allowed. These tables do not indicate the year in which the fatalities occurred.

Occupational fatality claims are divided into the following mutually exclusive categories:

- Fatalities due to occupational disease
- Fatalities due to traumatic accidents (an accident at work resulted in the worker's death)
- Fatalities that occurred while the person was receiving a pre-1990 100% permanent disability pension from the WSIB considered likely. A worker reaches maximum medical rehabilitation when there is unlikely to be any further significant Workers are eligible for NEL benefits if they reach maximum medical rehabilitation and permanent impairment is impairment, which is expressed as a percentage. To determine the amount of the NEL benefit, the percentage is then improvement in his or her medical condition. A medical assessment is then conducted to determine the level multiplied by a number that varies according to the year of the injury and the worker's age

The first NEL benefits were paid in April 1992.

PERIODIC PENSIONS AND SUPPLEMENTS Tables 19 and 20

Pensions and supplements are payable to injured workers who have a permanent impairment resulting from an accident that occurred prior to January 2, 1990. They are paid under the Worker's Compensation Act. These tables show pension awards and active pensions by percentage of permanent disability; and supplement awards and active supplements. Supplementary payments shown are broken down as follows:

- LMR) plan; or whose earning capacity has not increased sufficiently after an LMR program. The supplement is paid Section 147(4): supplements awarded to workers who are not likely to benefit from a Labour Market Re-entry until the worker is eligible for federal old age security benefits.
  - Section 147(2); supplements awarded to workers who are likely to benefit from an LMR plan (which would enable them to approximate their pre-injury-or-illness earnings)
- Section 147(14): additional payments awarded to workers who have been awarded a supplement under Section 147(4); or who would have been receiving the supplement had they not become eligible for federal old age security benefits.

Figures exclude lump sum awards and reassessments. These tables do not indicate the number of workers receiving pensions and/or supplements because pensioners can receive more than one award, or have more than one pension 30

TABLE 19: PERIODIC PENSIONS AWARDED BY PERCENTAGE OF PERMANENT DISABILITY AND SUPPLEMENTS AWARDED (1992 TO 2001)

This table shows the number of periodic pensions awarded in each year by percentage of permanent disability. It also shows supplements awarded by year. A large number of supplements were awarded in 1995 due to an amendment to the Workers' Compensation Act (Section 147(14)) that provides for an additional supplementary payment for many pension recipients.

TABLE 20: ACTIVE PERIODIC PENSIONS BY PERCENTAGE OF PERMANENT DISABILITY AND ACTIVE SUPPLEMENTS (1992 TO 2001)

This table shows the number of periodic pension awards active at the end of each year by percentage of permanent disability. It also shows active supplements by year. Supplements under Section 147(14) of the Workers' Compensation Act became available in 1995 when the Workers' Compensation Act was amended.
